You must tell us as soon as possible about any changes that could affect the level or cover of your insurance.

Do I have to tell you if my home will be unoccupied?

If your home is going to be unoccupied for more than 60 days, you must contact us before this happens, so we can tell you about how this affects your insurance.

Claiming under your buildings cover

How we pay claims

How we pay for repairs or rebuilding

If your buildings are damaged by any of the causes listed in Section 1: Buildings cover, we'll do one of the following:

- › Repair or rebuild the damaged part using our suppliers.
- › Pay to repair or rebuild the damaged part using your suppliers.
- › Make a cash payment.

We may take off an amount for wear and tear if the buildings were not in a good state of repair at the time of the damage.

If we can repair or rebuild the damaged part

If we can repair or rebuild the damaged part, we may still instead agree to use your suppliers or make a cash payment.

If we do this, we'll only pay the amount it would have cost us using our own suppliers. This may mean we pay you less than your suppliers charge.

If we can't repair or rebuild the damaged part

If it's not possible for us to repair or rebuild using our suppliers, we'll pay the full cost of the rebuild or repair using your suppliers.

If your buildings aren't repaired or rebuilt, we may pay the difference between the market values of your property immediately before and after the damage.

We won't pay to alter or restore any undamaged part of your buildings.

Matching sets and suites

- › If you're on Home Insurance (our standard cover), we won't cover undamaged items from a matching set or suite.
- › If you're on Platinum Home Insurance (our enhanced cover), we will cover undamaged items from a matching set or suite. See page 13 for more about matching sets and suites.

Guaranteeing our suppliers' work

We'll guarantee any work our suppliers carry out for 12 months.

We don't provide any guarantees for work carried out by a supplier that you've chosen or instructed.

What happens to your sum insured after a buildings claim

We won't reduce the sum insured after paying a claim.

How much we'll pay for claims

The most we'll pay for any claim will be:

- › The total sum insured shown on your home insurance details, or the full rebuild cost of your buildings, whichever is less.

Plus:

- › Up to the amount shown in 'Your policy limits' on page 8. This section confirms what we pay for:
 - Alternative accommodation, kennel fees and lost rent.
 - Clearance costs.
 - Professional fees.
 - Government or local authority regulations and requirements.

If the cost of rebuilding your home is more than the sum insured for your buildings, we'll reduce your claims payment.

This reduction will be the percentage difference between the premium you paid, and the premium we would have charged if the sum insured was accurate.

Before you pay any legal costs

Before you agree to pay any legal costs, you must call our Legal Helpline on

If you don't call us about any legal case before agreeing to pay costs, we may not pay your claim.

Other things your Legal Helpline can help with

You can ring the Legal Helpline to talk about any private legal problem under UK law. It doesn't matter whether you're going to claim or not. We can help with information about:

- › Your legal rights.
- › The options available to you.
- › Whether you need to speak to a lawyer.

We can't give legal advice on:

- › Any claim you make under this policy.
- › Anything connected to a business or similar.

Words with a specific meaning

When we use these words or terms in this section they have these specific meanings (unless we say differently).

Appointed representative The preferred law firm, solicitor or other suitably qualified person that we appoint to represent you under Section 4: Family Legal Protection.

Court A court, tribunal or other suitable authority.

Incident date This depends on whether it's a civil or criminal case.

- › For civil cases: the date of the incident that leads to a claim. If there's more than one incident from the same cause, we'll use the date of the first incident.
- › For criminal cases: the first date of any alleged offence.

Legal costs This includes the following:

- › Fees, expenses and money that the appointed representative charges. They must be charged properly, be reasonable and in proportion to the case. We must agree to these costs. We'll assess legal fees and money charged on the standard basis, or in line with a fixed recoverable costs scheme, if one applies.
- › Fees that your opponent has had to pay, that you're then ordered to pay by a court.
- › Any other fees that we agree to in writing.

Legal nuisance Any continuous activity, carried out by another party, that causes substantial and unreasonable interference with your use or enjoyment of your home.

Preferred law firm The law firm we choose to provide legal services. We choose these legal specialists as they have the expertise to deal with your claim. They must comply with our agreed service standards.

Reasonable chance of success In a civil case, when we and the appointed representative agree that there is a higher than 50% chance that you'll get a favourable judgment and do either of the following:

- › Recover your losses or damages.
- › Get any other legal remedy we agree to.
(For example, an enforcement of judgment, a successful appeal, or a successful defence of an appeal.)

For criminal cases, this would be a case where we and the appointed representative agree that there's a better than 50% chance that one of the following will happen:

- › You'll be acquitted from the charge against you.
- › You'll successfully reduce your sentence or fine.
- › You'll make a successful appeal or defence of an appeal.

Terms of appointment A separate contract that we'll need the appointed representative to sign if they aren't a preferred law firm. This sets out how much we'll pay them under your policy, and their responsibilities to report to us throughout the claim.

Claiming under your Family Legal Protection cover

How we pay claims

How to claim under this section

This section works slightly differently to other sections.

These conditions only apply to this section. Please also see the section called 'This policy doesn't cover' on page 45.

The following conditions don't apply to this section (Section 4: Family Legal Protection):

- › The general conditions under Policy terms and conditions and Preventing loss.
- › The claims conditions listed on page 47.

Following the policy terms

You must follow all the terms and conditions of this policy. You must also take all precautions to prevent a claim from happening. If it's impossible to avoid a claim, you must take all reasonable precautions to keep the amount of the claim to a minimum.

If you haven't followed the terms and conditions of this policy

If you haven't followed the terms and conditions of this policy, and this affects our position, we have the right to:

- › Refuse or withdraw from any claim.
- › Refuse to pay legal costs we've already agreed to.
- › Claim back from you legal costs that we've paid.

Getting started with your claim

Telling us about your claim

You must:

- › Tell us about your claim, including full and factual details, within a reasonable time from the incident date.
- › Send us any reasonable and relevant information we ask for.
- › Pay any charges to do with sending this information.

Choosing who represents you

If we accept your claim, we'll choose a preferred law firm to try and settle the matter without having to go to court.

If it's necessary to take your claim to court, or if there's a conflict of interests, you can choose a law firm to act as the appointed representative.

If you choose an appointed representative that isn't a preferred law firm, they must agree to act for you in line with our terms of appointment. You can ask us for a copy. We'll only cover their legal costs from the date they agree to our terms of appointment.

The appointed representative will enter into a separate contract of appointment directly with you. You'll be responsible for any of their legal costs that we don't authorise.

Working with us on the claim

Cooperating with the appointed representative and us

If we ask, you must tell the appointed representative to give us any documents, information or advice that they have or know about.

You must:

- › Fully cooperate with the appointed representative and with us.
- › Keep us and your appointed representative informed of all developments relating to the claim promptly.
- › Provide us and the appointed representative immediately with all information, evidence and documents that you have or know about.
- › Get our permission before instructing a barrister or expert witness.

You must not take any action that hasn't been agreed by your appointed representative or by us.

We can contact the appointed representative at any time, and they must cooperate with us at all times.

Settling or ending the claim

If the appointed representative refuses to continue acting for you, or if you dismiss them

Cover for your claim will end immediately if:

- › An appointed representative refuses to continue acting for you with good reason.
- › You dismiss an appointed representative without good reason.

This is unless we agree to appoint another appointed representative.

If anyone offers to settle your claim

You must tell us if anyone makes a payment into court or offers to settle your claim.

We can refuse to pay further legal costs if you don't accept a payment into court, or an offer to settle a claim, that we or your appointed representative considers you should accept.

If you settle or end your claim without our approval

You must not do either of the following without our approval:

- › Stop, settle, negotiate or withdraw from a claim.
- › Withdraw instructions from the appointed representative.

We won't withhold approval without good reason.

If it's more economic to settle your claim

We can decide to settle your claim by paying you the compensation you're likely to be awarded by a court. This would be instead of starting or continuing your claim or legal proceedings.

If your claim isn't for damages, we may decide to settle your claim by paying you the equivalent financial value of your claim.

If costs become disproportionate

Sometimes the legal costs of a legal action may be too much in relation to the value of your claim, this relates to a legal test that is referred to as "proportionality". In these cases, we may not provide further cover for your claim. When looking at how much your claim will cost to take legal action versus the potential benefit to be gained in pursuing your claim, we consider things like:

- › The difficulty of the case. Cases which are more difficult usually have greater legal costs attached to them.
- › The potential total value of the case. This includes the amount of damages you may be able to recover from the other party.
- › The non-financial value of the case. Sometimes your claim will have a benefit to you which is difficult to value in financial terms but is still worth pursuing. For these claims your appointed representative will take the benefit to you into account when calculating the total value of your claim.
- › If it would be reasonable to spend more in pursuing a claim than the benefit you would get in doing so.

Your appointed representative will assess the potential value to be gained in pursuing your case and the cost to take legal action.

If your claim no longer has a reasonable chance of success

You must tell us if your claim no longer has a reasonable chance of success.

We can refuse to pay further legal costs if this is the case.

If we disagree about the chances of success

If there's any disagreement about the reasonable chance of success, we'll ask you to get an opinion from a barrister. We'll agree which barrister with you.

You'll have to pay for the barrister's opinion, unless it shows that your claim has a reasonable chance of success.

Working out and recovering costs

Assessing costs

We have the right to have legal costs:

- › Certified by the appropriate professional body.
- › Audited by any costs draftsman we choose.
- › Assessed by a court.

Recovering costs

You must tell the appointed representative to claim back all legal costs that you're entitled to.

If you recover legal costs we've paid, you must refund them to us.

We and you will share any legal costs recovered in either of these situations:

- › We refused to pay further legal costs and you paid more legal costs to end your claim.
- › You chose to pay the difference between the legal costs we offered to the appointed representative (under our terms of appointment) and the legal costs they charged.

We'll split recovered legal costs with you in the same ratio that the legal costs were originally paid. For example, if you paid 60% of the original legal costs, you'll receive 60% of the recovered legal costs.

How much we'll pay

The most we'll pay, including any appeal or counter claim, is as follows:

- › Under your 'Family Legal Protection – core cover': £100,000 legal costs (including VAT) for all claims that result from or are connected with the same incident.
- › Under your 'Jury service cover': £100,000 for your salary or wages for all claims that result from or are connected with the same incident.

Other conditions to do with your Family Legal Protection cover

If you've made any representation that is in any way fraudulent, false or exaggerated during your legal claim:

- › We won't pay any claim under this section.
- › We have the right to recover all legal costs we've already paid from you.

When you find out about anything you need to claim for, or may need to claim for, you must tell us as soon as possible.

If you don't follow our conditions

If you don't follow any conditions, and this places us in a worse position:

- › We'll reject your claim, or be unable to deal with it.
- › We won't pay your claim in full.

Handing over damaged items

You should only hand over damaged items when we, or our suppliers, ask you to.

Enforcing your rights

We may take steps to enforce your rights against any other person. This will be:

- › At our expense.
- › In your name.
- › Either before or after we pay a claim.

You must give us any information or assistance we need.

Other insurance policies

We won't pay any claim if you have cover under any other insurance policies.

Professional customer representative

We'll only deal with a professional customer representative if they are authorised and regulated in the jurisdiction they operate in by an appropriate regulatory authority.

If your professional customer representative is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority, you can check the Financial Services Register www.fca.org.uk/firms/financial-services-register for details about them.

We'll stop dealing with a professional customer representative, and only deal with you directly, if any of the following happen:

- › The professional customer representative's behaviour is unreasonable.
- › Settlement negotiations aren't finalised within a reasonable timeframe.
- › There's no reasonable chance of the settlement being finished in line with the policy within a reasonable timeframe.

You must not assign or transfer your policy, or any right or obligation under your policy, to any third party without getting our written consent beforehand. This includes a professional customer representative.

We'll always keep the right to communicate directly with you. This includes if you've instructed a professional customer representative.

If you instruct a professional customer representative, we may still pay any claim settlement directly to you.

If you ask us, we may agree to pay the claim settlement to the professional customer representative.

If we agree to do this:

- › We'll have paid your claim in full.
- › We won't be responsible for the work carried out by your professional customer representative, or whoever they appoint.
- › We won't be liable for any further costs associated with that work.

Conditions that affect all types of claim except legal or liability claims

For any claims under Sections 1, 2, 3 or 5, you must:

- › Get our written consent before admitting, denying, negotiating or settling a claim.
- › Give us all the information and help we need.

We may take over, defend or settle the claim, or take up any claim in your name for our own benefit.

If you don't:

- › We may treat your policy as if it had never existed.
- › We may reject your claim.
- › We may not pay your claim in full.

Preventing loss

You must take reasonable care to prevent loss, injury, liability, damage or accidents to the buildings, contents and personal possessions covered under this policy.

Maintaining your buildings and contents

You must keep the buildings, contents and personal possessions covered under this policy in good condition.

Fraud

You must be honest in your dealings with us at all times.

If we judge that you have deliberately misrepresented any information to us when asking for, renewing or changing cover, we may end your policy without further notice. We'll also keep any premiums you've paid. We may recover from you claims payments we've previously made, including costs.

We won't pay a claim that is in any way fraudulent, false or exaggerated.

If you, any person insured under this policy, or anyone acting on your behalf attempts to deceive us, or knowingly makes a fraudulent, false or exaggerated claim, we may:

- › Cancel your policy.
- › Reject your claim and any following claims.
- › Keep any premium you have paid.

How the policy works

What happens if we discover fraud

If we discover fraud, we have the right to:

- › Cancel any other products you hold with us.
- › Share information about your behaviour with other organisations to prevent further fraud.
- › Cancel this policy, if the fraud happened under any other policy you hold with us.

We may also involve the relevant authorities who can bring criminal proceedings.

People involved in this contract

This policy is a contract between the policyholder and U K Insurance Limited. Unless we've stated otherwise, nothing in the policy is intended to confer a directly enforceable benefit on any other party under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

Telling us that your home will be unoccupied

If your home is going to be unoccupied for more than 60 days, you must contact us before this happens, so we can tell you about how this affects your insurance.

Please see 'If your home is unoccupied' in the section called 'This policy doesn't cover'.

Here are some situations where your home may become unoccupied.

- › Building work.
- › A long trip or extended holiday.
- › If you're only living in the UK part-time.
- › While you're waiting for a sale to go through.
- › If someone goes into residential care.
- › If the policyholder dies.
- › While you're waiting for probate.

Telling us about changes

You must tell us as soon as possible about any changes that could affect the level of cover of your insurance. This includes if:

- › You change the address where you currently live.
- › Any work is done to your home, other than routine maintenance or decoration.
- › You're prosecuted for any offence, or convicted of an offence. This excludes motoring offences.
- › You let your home out to tenants, or any paying guest or a lodger moves in.
- › Your home is used for business purposes, or as a holiday home. We don't count paperwork, telephone calls, child minding and computer work.
- › You become aware that your sums insured may be too low, and need to be increased.

This list doesn't set out all the changes you must tell us about. If you're not sure whether a change may affect your cover, please contact us.

What we'll do when you tell us about a change

We may reassess your cover, your premium, or both. We may charge you an administration fee for this. Please see your home insurance details for details of the fee.

What happens if you don't tell us about a change

If you don't tell us about any changes:

- › Your policy may be invalidated.
- › We may reject your claim.
- › We may not pay your claim in full.

Paying your premium

Paying your premium

We'll only cover you under this policy if you keep up your payments.

If you change your home insurance and there's an extra premium to pay, you can pay this at the time of the change, or add it to your monthly payments.

What happens if we can't collect your payment

If you pay monthly and we can't collect your monthly payment on the day it's due, we'll write to you to let you know, and ask you to make the payment.

If we don't receive payment by the date we set out in our letter, we may cancel the policy. If we do this, we'll give you at least 7 days' notice. We'll also write to you to tell you the policy has been cancelled.

If you or we cancel your credit agreement, the cancellation date may be different to the cancellation date of the insurance policy.

If there's a claim while you owe us money

If you've claimed, or if someone has claimed against you, while you owe us money, we may refuse your claim.

If we allow your claim, you must pay us the following:

- › All instalment payments that are due under the credit agreement but haven't been paid yet.
- › The total remaining balance under the credit agreement.

If we agree to pay your claim and you haven't paid these amounts, we may take the total that you owe us off the amount that we pay you to settle the claim.

If you owe us an additional premium

We may refuse your claim. If we allow your claim, we may take any additional premium off the amount we pay you to settle the claim, or we may proportionately reduce any payment we make to you.

Renewing your policy

When your policy is due for renewal, we may offer to renew it for you automatically using the payment details you have already given, unless you or we have advised otherwise.

We'll contact you at least 21 days before your policy ends to confirm your renewal premium and policy terms, and before taking any payment. If you don't want to renew your policy, you must contact us before your renewal date to let us know.

If we don't hear from you, we will debit your account with the payment details we hold on record, and your policy will automatically continue without a break in cover from your stated renewal date. You can contact us by phone, post or online if at any time your circumstances change and you no longer want your policy to renew automatically. If you choose not to renew automatically, your policy – including any additional products or benefits – will lapse on the renewal date, and you will be uninsured unless you contact us (or an alternative insurer) to arrange cover.

It's not possible to offer automatic renewal with all payment methods, so please check your renewal invite for further details. In some instances, we may be unable or choose not to offer renewal terms. If so, we will write to you at your last known address to let you know.

Your right to cancel your policy or remove any optional cover

You may cancel your policy, or remove any optional Family Legal Protection or Home Emergency cover you've added, at any time by contacting us on 0345 246 0223 or sending us notice in writing. The text below explains whether we'll charge you and how much we'll refund in each situation.

You must contact us to cancel your policy from a specific date, even if you are paying by instalments. If you do not contact us and you cancel your Direct Debit payments, we will follow the process set out under the section heading 'What happens if we can't collect your payment'. When this happens your policy is not immediately cancelled and we'll ask you to pay the money you owe.

If the cancellation or removal happens before your cover starts

We'll give a full refund.

If the cancellation or removal happens within 14 days of your policy starting, or within 14 days of receiving your documents (whichever is later)

If you cancel your policy, we'll charge for the time you've had cover, and refund the rest of the premium paid.

If you remove any optional Family Legal Protection or Home Emergency cover, we'll charge for the time you've had cover, and refund the rest of the premium paid.

If the cancellation or removal happens after the 14-day cooling off period

If you cancel your policy, we'll charge for the time you've had cover, plus an administration fee, and refund any remaining premium paid.

If you remove any optional Family Legal Protection or Home Emergency cover, we'll charge for the time you've had cover, and refund the rest of the premium paid.

If you've made a claim before cancelling

If you cancel your policy, we won't refund any Buildings, Contents or Personal Possessions premium if either of the following has happened during the period of insurance:

- › You've made a Buildings, Contents or Personal Possessions claim.
- › Someone has made a liability claim under Buildings or Contents against you.

If you pay by instalments under a credit agreement, you must pay to us (1) all instalment payments that have already fallen due under the credit agreement and remain unpaid, and (2) the total remaining balance under the credit agreement.

If we agree to pay your claim and you have not paid the amounts due to us under (1) and (2) above, we may reduce the amount that we pay in settlement of your claim by the amount that you owe us. Alternatively, we may write to you asking you for the full payment.

We will return any premium you've paid for any optional Family Legal Protection or Home Emergency cover, less a charge for the number of days you've had cover.

If we need to cancel the policy

We have the right to cancel your policy at any time if there's a valid reason. We'll give you at least 7 days' notice in writing. We'll send our cancellation letter to the last known address we have for you.

Valid reasons may include, but are not limited to:

- › You failing to cooperate with us or send us information or documentation as required by the terms of your policy. This is especially where this significantly affects our ability to process your claim or deal with your policy.
- › Changes to your circumstances that mean you no longer meet our criteria for providing home insurance.
- › You using threatening or abusive behaviour or language with our staff or suppliers.

Refunding the premium

If we cancel your policy, we'll return the premium paid minus the amount for the period the policy has been in force, unless there has been any fraudulent activity.

We won't refund any premium if you've made a claim, or if you've had a claim against you if you have chosen to pay by lump-sum.

If you pay by instalments under a credit agreement, you must pay to us (1) all instalment payments that have already fallen due under the credit agreement and remain unpaid, and (2) the total remaining balance under the credit agreement.

If we agree to pay your claim and you have not paid the amounts due to us under (1) and (2) above, we may reduce the amount that we pay in settlement of your claim by the amount that you owe us. Alternatively, we may write to you asking you for the full payment.

Index linking

Here's how we use index linking.

Buildings cover

If you've set your own buildings sum insured, we'll index-link the amount shown on your home insurance details. We'll do this using the House Rebuilding Cost Index from the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, or another appropriate index.

We don't apply index linking to our other policy limits in 'Section 1: Buildings'.

Contents cover

We don't index-link your contents sum insured or our other policy limits in 'Section 2: Contents'.

However, if you've declared high-risk items, we may index-link some of these using the Consumer Price Index. You can see any high-risk items on your home insurance details.

Personal Possessions cover

We don't index-link your Personal Possessions sum insured or our other policy limits in 'Section 3: Personal Possessions'.

However, if you've declared high-risk items, we may index-link some of these using the Consumer Price Index. You can see any high-risk items on your home insurance details.

What is 'water escape'?

'Water escape' is how we talk about leaks.

Water escape can happen when frozen pipes burst causing water damage to the home, or a broken washing machine damages the kitchen units.

If a water pipe in your loft bursts when your home is empty, 250 gallons of water an hour could escape until you find out.

How to protect you and your home

- › Consider lagging all internal pipework – in particular, pipes in the loft. This can be done easily and cheaply with pipe insulation covers that can be bought from a DIY store.
- › Cover outside taps with covers to help prevent freezing.
- › Watch out for changes in your home. Drops in boiler pressure, or discolouration to floors could all be signs of a leak. Keep an eye on your sealant and grout around the home as if damage is caused by this failing, you're not covered.
- › Check if your boiler has been maintained in line with the manufacturer's instructions. These can usually be found in your boiler user manual, or on the manufacturer's website.
- › We will deal with the resultant damage of a water leak, subject to confirmation of cover and any excess. We will not cover the source of the leak unless you have Home Emergency cover on your policy. Refer to your home insurance details to check if you have this cover.
- › Remember it's important to keep your home in a good general condition and deal with any problems quickly to avoid any issues if you need to make a claim.

Staycation (or luxury cruise)?

Are you planning to be away from home for more than a day or two?

If you're going away in cold weather, make sure you always:

- › Consider turning off the stopcock to limit a possible escape of water.
- › Set your heating to 12C (54F). At this temperature, pipes shouldn't freeze.
- › Leave the loft hatch open (if you have water pipes or a water tank in the loft) so warmer air can rise up.
- › Arrange for a family member or friend to check your home regularly. (Or just add it to your housekeeper's list).
